NUMB. 2497

THURSDAY, JUNE 23. 1743.

Since our laſt arrived a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Naples, June 4.

Ardinal Aquaviva arriv'd here from Rome on the 29th of laſt Month, and alighted at the Palace of Converſano. In a ſhort time after his Eminence went to Court, where he had the Honour to ſalute the King and Queen, and met with a very gracious Reception. On the 2d of this Month the Queen went to the Royal Chapel for the firſt time ſince he lay in. All our Advices from Sicily agree, that the Influenza prevails there more than ever, and is mortal in ſo high a Degree, that we begin to treat it here as a Kind of Plague, and have Thoughts of prohibiting all Commerce with one Part of the Iſland.

Rome, June 8. The Pope will continue at Caſtel-Gondolpho till the Feaſt of St. Peter and Paul. We begin to talk again of the grand Promotion of Cardinals, and 'tis ſaid, that it will be made on the Anniverſary of his Holineſs's Coronation. Cardinal Alexander Albani, Protector of the Queen of Hungary's Dominions, went lately to the Church Del Anima, and after Divine Service, caus'd Te Deum to be ſung for the Victories lately obtain'd by her Majeſty's Arms in Hungary; to which he invited all the Cardinals that are here, without Diſtinction of Nations, and they all ſent their Gentlemen to aſſiſt, except two, viz. Borgeſe and Aquaviva. The former of theſe immediately preſented a Memorial to the Pope, in which he ſet forth, that the Church Del Anima did not belong by any Means to the Houſe of Auſtria, but to the reigning Emperor; and that, conſequently, Cardinal Albani had no Right to cauſe Te Deum to be ſung there. Copies of this Memorial were deliver'd to all the Members of the Sacred College, and to all the Foreign Miniſters.

Augsbourg, June 20. A Captain from the Auſtrian Army arrived here Yeſterday, with a Meſſage to our Magiſtrates, importing, that as their Troops had preciſe Orders to do nothing that might prejudice the Neutrality hitherto obſerv'd, in regard to this City, it was hoped that like Care would be taken on the Part of the Inhabitants, of which he had the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances given him. On the 15th and 16th arriv'd the Generals Naſti, Leopold Paſi, Forgatſch, Berenclau, Feſtetitz, and ſeveral others. A Body of 3000 Imperial Cavalry paſs'd lately by this City to the Camp of M. Seckendorff, not far from Donawert.

Nuremberg, June 20. Baron Palm lately arriv'd here from Ratisbon with a Commiſſion, as we apprehend, from the Queen of Hungary, to demand of the States of the Circle of Franconia, a free Paſſage for the Army now in the Maine, as well as for a Body of Irregular Troops, which her Majeſty thinks it neceſſary to detach from Bavaria, in order to ſecure the Magazines that are raiſing for the Uſe of the Army before-mentioned. The prevailing Opinion here is, that nothing of Conſequence will paſs till the Armies now in Bavaria are joined by thoſe on the Rhine and Maine. Prince Charles of Lorrain, and Prince Lobkowitz, are encamp'd over-againſt each other; the former on the Right, the latter on the Left Bank of the Maine; and M. Broglio lies within three Miles of them, and one of the City of Ingoldſtadt. The Auſtrians conceive, that by the time they are joined by the Army of Auxiliaries, Braunau and Egra will be ſurrender'd; ſo that they ſhall be able to bring their whole Force together, in order to ſtrike a deciſive Blow, and put an End to the War at once.

P. S. We have juſt now receiv'd Advice from Augſbourg, that the Troops that were block'd up at Braunau finding that the Town would be infallibly deſtroyed by the violent Cannonading of the Auſtrians, had capitulated on the 17th. We expect with Impatience a particular Account of the Terms on which they ſurrender'd; it is ſuppo'd that Egra will very ſpeedily fall likewiſe into the Hands of the Auſtrians, ſince the Troops before it have been lately reinforced with above 3000 Men.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris, June 29. 'On Sunday laſt the King declared, that he had given his Nomination for a Cardinal's Hat to the Archbiſhop of Bourges, and the next Morning his Majeſty farther declared the ſame Prelate his Ambaſſador to the Holy See.

'The Marquis de Chazeron arrived at Donawert on the 14th, in order to take upon him the Command of the Detachment ſent to M. Broglio. He marched on the 16th, and on the 18th arrived at the Camp under the Cannon of Ingoldſtadt.

'The Regiments that were in Lorrain, Franche Compte, &c. receiv'd Orders to march to Provence, as well as the Gendarmarie who were to have ſerved upon the Rhine. M. Maillebois will have the Command of theſe Troops, and the Reaſon of our marching them this Way is ſaid to be this, that the Engliſh Fleet in the Mediterranean is known to have on board it 12 or 15,000 Land Troops, which, on the firſt News of Hoſtilities being begun on the Rhine, were to make a Deſcent on Provence.

'They write from Bavaria, that 1500 Bavarians, and a Squadron of Dragoons of Orleans, who were in a certain Poſt, had been taken Priſoners by 800 Pandours, thro' the Treachery of the Perſon who commanded them, who had deſerted from the Queen of Hungary, and enter'd into the Service of the Emperor; and that as a juſt Reward for his Perfidy, her Hungarian Majeſty had order'd his Head to be cut off.

'Letters from the Army on the Rhine ſay, that on the 18th the Engliſh had begun to repaſs the Maine three Leagues above our Camp; of which M. Noailles having Notice, ſent the Regiments of French Guards, with two other Regiments of Foot, and all the Huſſars, who found about 800 on their Side the River, upon whom they fired; and they ſeeing our Troops advance, repaſſed the Maine, after having had three Men kill'd, and five made Priſoners. We had on our Side ſome kill'd and wounded, amongſt the reſt, the Aid de Camp of the Count de Clermont, who had a Muſquet Shot in his Breaſt. M. Noailles has order'd the Banks of the Maine to be lined with Cannon, to prevent any ſecond Attempt of this Kind.'

AMERICA.

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, of the 29th of March paſt.

——We have lately had two Spaniſh Privateers off this Iſland, who have taken ſome of our Veſſels, and ſold them at Martinico without a legal Condemnation, which has occaſioned our fitting out two Privateers in Queſt of them; they ſailed Yeſterday.——One was a Brigg. with 14 large Carriage, and 16 Swivel Guns, with 110 ſtout Men, commanded by Capt. Charles Gwinn; the other a Sloop with 12 Carriage, and 12 Swivel Guns, and 90 Men, Capt. Le Gall Commander; both Veſſels are well fitted, and we hope ſoon to have a good Account of them.——This Captain Gwinn ſunk a Spaniſh Privateer in the Chanel of England about two Years ago, and is lately arriv'd from Tortuga, where he convoy'd ſome Veſſels from this Iſland. The 4th Night after his Arrival there, he was boarded by two Spaniſh Launches, with about 50 Men, whom he engaged from 1 o'Clock until Day-break, and at laſt obliged them to quit. He found ſix Men dead on his Deck, and took one Negro alive, who gives an Account of many more being kill'd. The Spaniards cut away his Boom, which obliged him to return directly here. As ſoon as the other Veſſels ſaw Capt. Gwynn engag'd, they made the beſt of their Way home, and left him to fight the Battle alone, tho' ſome of them had ten Swivel Guns, and ſmall Arms.

LONDON.

Private Letters from Hamburgh ſay, that M. Duncan arriv'd on the 18th at Stockholm from Abo, with the Preliminaries; and that it was thought the great Point of the Succeſſion was likewiſe ſettled.

By private Letters from Rome we are inform'd, that Cardinal Pico de Mirandola died there on the 10th Inſt. in the 75th Year of his Age.

Count Leopold Palſi is declared by the Queen of Hungary Governor of Munich, where the Auſtrians have made themſelves Maſters of a great Magazine, intended for the Service of the Imperial Troops.

They write from Bruſſels, that the famous Poet Voltaire having receiv'd a great Packet from M. Amelot, by the Poſt, immediately ſet out for Berlin, where, it is ſaid, he is to execute a Commiſſion of Importance.

Letters from Duſſeldorp ſay, that there is now very little Difference between the Courts of Augsbourg and Prague, and that it was believed the Preliminaries would be ſigned in a very few Days.

Yeſterday the Priſoners were remov'd from the ſeveral Goals to Newgate, in order to take their Trials the enſuing Seſſions at the Old Bailey; upwards of 30 were brought from Clerkenwell Bridewell.

The ſame Day the Perſon lately taken up at Derby for curſing his Majeſty, was brought from thence, and committed to the King's Bench.

The ——, Langerfeild, loaden with Wheat, is taken by the Spaniards, and carried into Cadiz.

The William and Mary, Palgrave, from Ancona for Yarmouth; and the Mary, Crawford, are both taken and carried into Malaga.
